SOUTHERN DISCOVERIES NOTES:

Your cruise will travel down the south side of the Fiord, out to the Tasman Sea and return up the north side, stopping off at all points of interest along the way. Enjoy the breathtaking scenery with a full commentary on the natural history of the Sound.

All vessels are fully licensed with a range of beverages plus a selection of snack foods. Complimentary tea and coffee is provided on all cruises. Smoking: Smoking is not permitted aboard the vessels. For the comfort of all passengers we do request you do not smoke outside. Smoking bins are provided on outside decks.

All scenic cruises depart from Milford Sound at the Milford Wharf Visitor Centre, simply go to the Milford Sound Red Boat Cruises ticket office located within the Visitor Centre. For all cruises, check-in is required 20 minutes prior to departure.

HOW TO GET THERE

Located in Fiordland National Park, Milford Sound Red Boat Cruises depart daily from the Milford Wharf Visitor Centre, situated at Freshwater Basin in Milford Sound.

Driving to Milford Sound: The Road to Milford Sound is considered one of the most scenic journeys in New Zealand. (Please allow just over 5 hours driving time from Queenstown).

By Coach: From Te Anau by scheduled coach or the comfort of your own car, you're only 2 hours away from Milford Sound. From Queenstown by coach, the trip takes approximately 5 hours. Coaches leave in plenty of time to catch an afternoon Milford Sound Red Boat Cruise returning to Te Anau or Queenstown the same day.

ARRIVING AT MILFORD SOUND

If you are driving you can park at the Milford Sound carpark. Please allow 10 minutes to walk from the carpark to the Milford Wharf Visitor Centre. Alternatively you can take the complimentary shuttle.
